Miss Woofington was originally a mischievous human -and was always playing pranks on her family-.But when she was 10 years old she met a magical magician who turned her into a big boisterous barker. All the other dogs at the local dog park where horrible to her because of her hilarious-looking green skirt (which Miss Woofington thought was quite stylish). She was jolly, joyful and care-free until the menacing dogs where mean to her. Now, every time she visits the dog park, she hides in a dark, lonely bush, all by herself.
